

Eradication of Poverty Music Concert

17th October in Treo Nua

12-3pm

At the Portlaoise Family Resource Centre, we invite you to come join us as we recognise and acknowledge the United Nations International Day for the Eradication of Poverty.

Music will be provided by our youth groups, who have composed and recorded their own songs, along with guest speakers.

Help us raise awareness about poverty and homelessness and together we can make a difference!

Around Ireland, thousands of people are living on the streets. They have  into our society. This has to  We all deserve the  to grow, learn, live and love. No one should be  behind. The road ahead won't be easy. Sometimes it can feel like a  and we'll hit a  or feel like we need to  But together we can find  ahead and make a change. So let's  to a new day and  homelessness.  the opportunity for someone to help.
