From the M50:

Exit M50 at Junction 6.

Take the exit road N3 (R147) going to the city. It is straight all the way from here.

After exiting the M50 and before reaching your destination you will go through five sets of traffic lights, and straight through one roundabout (at Halfway House) heading towards the city.

The entrance (an archway marked St. Mary's Dominican Convent) is the second entrance immediately after the Church (the first entrance is Assisi House) and just before the Maxol petrol station.

Drive straight up the avenue (you will pass the Holy Rosary School for deaf girls, a hockey pitch and PE hall on your left) until you reach the barrier, which will be up to allow access. The next building on your left is Mary Bellew House.

Pass Mary Bellew House and follow the road around to the right by the front of the college. Turn left at the end of the college building, following the building around to the back, passing the entrance to the chapel. The resource centre is the last building on the left. Parking is available near the entrance (see last map below).
